Patients face long A&E waits

BY CARL MUNGAZI

editor@mk-news.co.uk

WAITING times at Milton Keynes Hospital's Accident and Emergency (A&E) department are some of the longest in the country.

That is the verdict of the Royal College of Nursing (RCN), who have highlighted five A&E departments in the south east that have fallen well below the national average. They say the disappointing figures are down to several factors including pressure on staff.

Department of Health figures show that between January 6 and March 31 this year, just 77 per cent of patients at Milton Keynes Hospital A&E were seen in four hours or less. This compares to the national average, for the same period, of 91.1 per cent.

And the RCN issued warnings that A&E waiting times in the south east of England are continuing to rise.

Victoria Couling, an RCN regional officer, said the startling figures showed an urgent need for expansion.

She said: "I think part of the difficulty is the physical size of the department. When it opened the population of Milton Keynes was lower than it is now.

"The problems are about the physical environment and the growth of the city. I know the Trust is aware of the problem and is working to fix it."

Ms Couling also said nurses were working as hard as they could within the A&E department's constraints.

She added: "The Trust does have plans about re-designing the department but then we will need to have the capacity to take the people being admitted to hospital.

"We know that we have an ageing population and if the community can't take them in then they will come to the hospital.

"The NHS is going through some major difficulties at the moment. I believe all Trusts want to deliver good and safe care for the patients."

MK Hospital's chief operating officer, Darren Leech, said the hospital was tackling the issue and had recently opened an Ambulatory Emergency Care Unit (AECU), where patients needing urgent care can be treated in one day.

He added: "Like many other hospitals, MK Hospital has experienced unprecedented levels of demand from patients visiting A&E during the period of extended cold weather.

"To ensure all our patients continue to receive safe, quality care in a timely way, we have been proactive in making changes to how we see and treat patients, like piloting a rapid assessment model to ensure that our urgent cases, including those patients who arrive by ambulance, are seen quickly.

"These changes have seen results. Last weekend an average 99 per cent of patients were seen within four hours."

A group has launched a new first aid course to help owners take care of their pets.

Burglary down but it's tough catching crooks

MAL TATTERSALL
editor@mk-news.co.uk

BURGLARIES from homes in Milton Keynes have plunged by around 25 per cent over the last two years – but hard-pressed cops are solving fewer of them.

Their detection rate of 16 per cent for 2012-13 was down 2.3 per cent since 2010-11, meaning they narrowly missed their 17 per cent target, figures showed this week.

But police commander Barry Halliday pointed out that overall there were 1,800 fewer victims of crime in the city last year.

He said: "Milton Keynes is still one of the safest places to live and work. We now only have two burglaries a day.

"However, there is no room for complacency and we will be trying to prevent more."

Local bobbies had a 100 per cent success rate in solving serious crimes like homicide and attempted murders.

They also comfortably beat their target of reducing violent crime by 5 per cent.

The 2,853 total was 470 down on 2011-12 – a decrease of 14.1 per cent – and a massive 1,464 fewer than in the year before that. The number of serious sexual assaults, including rape, was down 18.9 per cent on the last 12 months. But the detection rate of 29.9 per cent just missed the force's 30 per cent target.

Overall, victim-based crime fell 7.3 per cent during the last 12 months, with around one in five of the 16,205 total being solved.

The number of domestic abuse incidents fell 12.1 per cent from 1,612 to 1,417, with a detection rate of 43.5 per cent.

Mr Halliday added: "If you put the total figures into context, there were 1,800 fewer victims in Milton Keynes than last year.

"As police commander, it's important I say thank you to members of the public who helped us achieve these figures."

Wolverton residents, alongside Mayor Catriona Morris, in good spirits at the opening of the new pool

1,600 celebrate new pool

LOCALS donned their swimwear to celebrate the opening of the new swimming pool and leisure complex in Wolverton.

Around 1,600 people turned up to the £7.5m centre on Saturday, which was opened by Mayor of Milton Keynes Catriona Morris who cut the ribbon.

Councillor Peter Geary, cabinet member for communities, said: "This is a fantastic new facility for Milton Keynes. The pool and fitness centre has been delivered on time and on budget. We are continually aiming to improve the leisure offer in Milton Keynes and there will be more to come in the future."

The complex includes a 25m adult pool, 13m kids' pool, 65 workout stations and two aerobic studios.

Lib Dem Doug elected

DOUGLAS McCall has been re-elected as the leader of Milton Keynes Liberal Democrats following their AGM on Monday. Reacting to his unopposed election, he said: "I am delighted to have been re-elected for the second year running. In these austere times tax payers' money has to be used wisely and particularly to help the socially disadvantaged."

New times for libraries

A NUMBER of libraries in the city are open on Sundays for the first time. MK Central Library, and the libraries in Kingston and Westcroft are now open from 11am until 2pm. It follows a public consultation as part of review of the library service.

Two men jailed for violent theft

TWO men have been jailed for a violent robbery .

In November 2011, a 39-year-old man was walking home on Faraday Drive, Shenley Lodge, when he was attacked by three men. His injuries required hospital treatment and the thugs stole his jacket.

Benjamin Tompkins, 29, of The Hide, Netherfield, and John Sunter, 31, of Speedwell Place, Conniburrow were sentenced to 54 and 32 months in jail respectively. A third man, David Terry, aged 24, of Penryn Avenue, Fishermead, pleaded guilty to assault occasioning actual bodily harm and received a 12 month community order.

New director for town's band

WOLVERTON Town Band has appointed Jeffrey Ginn as its new musical director.

One of his first assignments will be to ready the band for its part in Wolverton's twinning weekend on June 1 and 2, when the town will be visited by representatives from Ploegsteert in Belgium.

Jeffrey said: "I'm delighted to accept the invitation to be Wolverton Town Band's new musical director. I'm looking forward to having fun, making fine music and helping build the band for the future."

Suited up: Author Jack Reynolds, second right, and friends prepare for the Civil War exhibition next month

Dressing up in a very civil way

RESIDENTS in Newport Pagnell celebrate the town's rich history in the English Civil War – by dressing up as Cavaliers.

Jack Reynolds, who is the author of 'Newport Pagnell: Cromwell's Garrison Town' is delighted that the exhibition of the same name will be arriving in Newport Pagnell on Saturday May 4 for one day, making the short trip from its normal home at Milton Keynes Central Library.

The Civil War, which started in 1642, was contested by the parliamentary Roundheads and royalist Cavaliers.

"Cavaliers and Roundheads haven't been seen on the streets of Newport Pagnell for 350 years, but we should have a few wandering around on the day," Jack told MK NEWS.

"It really will give the town a wonderful flavour of some of its rich history."

Police plot metal theft crackdown

BY CARL MUNGAZI
editor@mk-news.co.uk

METAL thieves in Milton Keynes are set to be under the spotlight, Thames Valley Police have warned.

Detective Inspector Ian Wood was speaking following the news that the number of metal thefts in the Thames Valley area had fallen by 48 per cent over the last financial year – 2,052 thefts from April 2012-March 2013, compared with the 2011/12 figure of 3,924.

Milton Keynes saw a reduction of 14.9 per cent, 322 thefts recorded in 2011/12 was reduced to 274 thefts in 2012/13.

But despite the drop, DI Wood said the force would continue working to reduce the thefts by a bigger margin.

He said: "The reduction in Milton Keynes is much lower than the overall figure but we will be looking at how we can get it lower.

"The main thing we want to do in Milton Keynes is interact with scrap metal dealers so we can risk assess them, and get a feel for those who are okay and the ones we think are potentially handling stolen metal.

"That way we can target the bad ones and not the good ones.

"We have a small, dedicated team who have become good at this and are able to spot the ones who are dodgy.

"The driving force behind metal theft was that it was easy to steal with little risk of being caught.

"The price obviously had a bearing but there was also not a joined up approach in tackling that. Now we are working with all our partners to get it down.

"Milton Keynes will get a closer look and we will look at the best practice across other areas to see what they are doing that can also be done here to get the problem down."

All aboard for free

ARRIVA are offering free bus tickets to encourage people to stop using their cars and instead make 'greener journeys' during Catch The Bus Week. Regional managing director Heath Williams said: "This is a fantastic idea to encourage people who have forgotten about bus travel to review us as an option when travelling."

Mementos of dead girl stolen

CALLOUS crooks stole sentimental items belonging to a dead six-year-old girl – including a lock of her hair.

The thieves broke into her home while it was being renovated and stole a bag recently collected from the undertakers.

Inside were a silver bracelet engraved "Daughter", a gold cross on a chain, a Kindle, bereavement cards and the hair tied up in a pink ribbon.

Police are appealing for witnesses to the robbery in Elthorne Way, Newport Pagnell.

PC Susan Russell said: "The victim is keen to get these items back and asks that they be left at the police station."

The joining of great Minds

BOSSES are calling it a meeting of great Minds – as the Milton Keynes branch of mental health charity Mind links up with the Bedfordshire and Luton group.

They believe that their combined knowledge and 70 years expertise will help Mind provide better support across both communities.

Alison Fisher, chief executive officer of the new Mind BMLK, explained: "This will ensure established mental health and well-being services continue to benefit those who need them."

'Disgusted' at sudden closure of my surgery

I WAS shocked and appalled to receive on Saturday, April 13 written notification that Dr Agnelo Lobo had resigned and Willen Village Surgery closed with effect from Sunday, April 14 - in effect this was no notice whatsoever.

I have every confidence in Dr Lobo's ability, skill, diligence and energy. He was my doctor for a decade or more and I had been a patient at Willen Village Surgery for 28 years.

I last saw Dr Lobo on April 10 and he asked me to return in three weeks for an ECG, but inside 48 hours the NHS was placing letters in the post announcing his resignation.

It is disgusting that the NHS closes a GP's surgery without due notice or consultation.

The local area is popular with retired and older patients, often in care homes, who live within a mile of the surgery and selected the area precisely because of that proximity and the attendant pharmacy, now probably at risk as well.

Patients have been directed to other surgeries, but the nearest is three miles away or more and I used to walk to Willen.

Many patients, such as myself, have repeat prescriptions and any delays in issuing those could have very serious consequences.

This isn't just inconvenient it is reckless and downright dangerous.

Badminton HQ views have not been heard

I NOTE in the article 'Badminton chief defends HQ move' (MK NEWS, April 17) that the chief executive of Badminton England says they have tried to satisfy the concerns of local residents by reducing the number of houses to be built in Bradwell Road from 144 to 104.

As I understand it, the reason for that reduction was there was a flood risk identified on one end of the site, hence that part is now not earmarked for development.

There was not a reduction in the proposed density of the development on the rest of the site, which is one of the problems identified with the outline proposal.

Your article also stated the development is on brownfield land. The majority of the proposed site is very green parkland forming the setting for Lodge Lake and belongs to The Parks Trust. In the local plan, the parkland is allocated as an open recreation area and not for development.

In a recent poll of local residents, the overwhelming majority of them wanted the development to be rejected.

Peter Todd
Chairman, Loughton Parish Council

Plan to replace centre with homes is 'insane'

I'VE just read your piece about the proposed demolition of the National Badminton Centre in Loughton, built and extended only a few years ago with someone else's money.

The chief executive of Badminton England might think it a great idea, but to the existing residents of Loughton it is an insane plan to even think of building 104 new homes on the site.

The roads can scarcely cope with current levels of traffic; I dread to think of the accidents that will inevitably happen as harassed parents running behind schedule take to the roads.

The junction of Bradwell Road with the H4 is already hazardous. It will become deadly.

I've communicated my thinking to the council. I don't for a moment believe it will make one iota of difference.

Brian Bollen
Ebbsgrove, Loughton

Make tough decisions to find new rail route

MR PAKES' letter concerning the railways adds more confusion to how he feels they should be funded.

He complains that the Government has wasted £50million on the cancelled West Coast rail franchise process, despite wide spread media reports stating that bungling civil servants were to blame.

He believes union-led inflation busting pay increases for rail staff have no impact on passenger fares, presumably because the Labour party believes money grows on trees.

He concludes that nationalisation is the answer to funding, presumably run by the same bungling civil servants.

None of this actually addresses the problem of funding, the subject for which he was asked an opinion in a previous edition of MK NEWS.

Solutions include fare rises and cuts to rail and welfare/public services so more money is available for rail, or asking MK taxpayers to pay more tax to subsidise rail travel.

The decisions are not easy but they must be made. Opportunism is easy Mr Pakes, but tough decisions require some backbone.

Put your questions to Iain Stewart

MP and CAB can help solve your problems

VOLUNTEERS from the Citizens Advice Bureau (CAB) recently invited Iain Stewart to talk about his work as a Member of Parliament.

The Milton Keynes South MP and a member of his staff also had the opportunity to shadow volunteers, Jean Wood and John Easden, as they went about their work offering advice to local residents. Here he answers some of their questions.

In what ways are you able to help constituents?

My office and the CAB share quite a number of similarities with the types of problems that residents come to us for help with.

I have four members of staff who handle a range of issues such as benefits, tax credits, immigration, school admissions and housing. I am able to help constituents with their problems by raising the matter directly with the chief executives of the agencies involved – cutting through a lot of red tape.

Also, most of these organisations like HM Revenue and Customs, Jobcentre Plus and banks have a dedicated unit which looks at complaints that MPs raise on behalf of constituents.

How do you vote when constituents write to express their opinion about an issue?

Since becoming an MP, I have learnt that voting on an issue is never entirely straightforward. Often it is a balance between personal views, national and constituency interests.

For example, I could receive hundreds of emails from constituents urging me to vote one way on a particular issue. However, with more than 80,000 electors in my constituency would I say that the view of those hundreds is truly reflective of all of my constituents? It is often the case that a vocal minority can drown out the views of the silent majority.

I usually make a judgment on how to vote after careful consideration of various factors such as the personal experiences of those affected by an issue and facts and figures from relevant professionals.

I also look for opportunities to shadow various professionals and meet the many local charities as their views are invaluable in informing my voting decision.

Bletchley is THE place to go

FORGET all those exotic foreign holiday spots...check out our very own Bletchley Park instead.

Visiting the world war two code-breaking centre has been included on a list of "101 Things to Do Before You Go Abroad".

It ranks alongside 20 places like Stonehenge, Cornwall's Tintagel Castle and Greenwich Royal Observatory in the "History and Heritage" section.

Members of the public voted for the sites through Visit England's Facebook app.

A spokeswoman said: "More than 1,000 different places were suggested for five different categories.

"History and Heritage was the most popular with 350 nominations. Then we got Barney Chandler, Yeoman Warder at the Tower of London, to choose the best."

Bletchley Park is considered the birthplace of the modern computer.

Code-breaking carried out there by people like Alan Turing is estimated to have shortened the war by between two and four years.

Scan your way to greener clothing

BY CARL MUNGAZI
editor@mk-news.co.uk

SHOPPERS will be given a chance to undergo a free 3D body scan for clothing measurements over the weekend following the launch of Eco Week.

The initiative was launched by the Mayor of Milton Keynes Catriona Morris on Monday and is now in its second year.

It has been set up to educate people on sustainable fashion through a variety of interactive, educational and fun activities.

The whole event is being run by the Midsummer Place Shopping Centre and the body scanner will be running from Friday until Sunday.

Among the facilities on offer will be a 3D body scanner that measures every inch of the body, from top to toe.

It has been introduced to help cut down the purchase of unnecessary clothing.

The machine produces exact measurements to help shoppers find the most fitting clothing for their body size.

Throughout the week shoppers will also be able to drop their unwanted clothes into the Willen Hospice clothes bank.

The Shopping Centre's retailers will be putting on interactive activities and demonstrations of their sustainable products from Monday until Sunday, including the chance for visitors to make their very own bath bomb, sustainable tea, coffee sampling and much more.

Martin Hindson, centre manager at Midsummer Place, said: "It is important for us to show our shoppers that we care about sustainability which is why Eco Week has become so important.

"I would especially like to thank the Mayor for coming down and supporting us.

"As the fashion destination of Milton Keynes it is a great way to educate our shoppers on how they can be eco-friendly, whilst still fitting in with the latest trends."

Wicked breaks box office record

THEATRE bosses in Milton Keynes have announced that the hit musical Wicked has broken the box office record for highest grossing ticket sales.

The gross income in the first weeks of sales was nearly double the previous record.

The popular musical will head to Milton Keynes Theatre for five weeks in February 2014.

Mike Keane, general manager of Milton Keynes Theatre, said: "Everyone at the theatre is buzzing with the news that the first ever UK tour of Wicked will be landing on our stage next year, and it seems our audiences feel the same.

"Tickets are flying out of the box office for this show which delivers the best of West End quality to your doorstep."

The news was also warmly welcomed by Michael McCabe, who is the executive producer of Wicked.

He said: "We are all delighted to have broken box office records at the Milton Keynes Theatre.

"We would like to thank all the venue staff as well as the ticket buyers themselves for helping us achieve this incredible milestone."

'Air ambulance

Craig Course owes his life to the staff and crew from Thames Valley and Chiltern Air Ambulance, who MK NEWS has announced as its Charity of the Year

MK NEWS is delighted to announce that Thames Valley and Chiltern Air Ambulance (TVACAA) has been named as our Charity of the Year.

The helicopter, affectionately know as BOB because it serves Berkshire, Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire, has helped save countless lives.

And one of those who is in debt to the service the air ambulance provides is 24-year-old Craig Course, who was involved in a accident on his motorcycle.

In February 2012, Craig attempted to cross a junction on the H6 and was involved in a collision with a car.

"I normally have pretty good judgement when it comes to distances. I thought I had enough room, but as I crossed the driver swerved to avoid me. In my eyes I think both of us made a mistake," Craig told MK NEWS.

Craig Course hopes to walk again after being saved by the BOB crew

"Then I was bouncing down the carriageway, but I don't remember too much of the incident because of the adrenalin that was pumping."

The accident left Craig's right lower leg badly injured. He also suffered a small internal bleed in his brain and he lost more than half his entire blood supply.

After the incident, Craig says he was told that a local lady treated him and tried to stop the bleeding, but he doesn't know who phoned the ambulance.

Members of staff from BOB flew in shortly after, and airlifted him to the John Radcliffe hospital in Oxford.

And it is this that Craig feels is the most important part of his story.

"Being airlifted to John Radcliffe is the key reason that I still have my leg. Milton Keynes Hospital didn't really have the speciality to deal with my injuries, but the surgeon at John Radcliffe did.

"I do sometimes think about what would have happened if the air ambulance wasn't there.

"I would most likely have lost my leg, and at worst I would have died of blood loss."

Stories like this are why MK NEWS has decided to name the saved my life'

Air ambulance staff pose next to 'BOB'. MK NEWS has announced the helicopter as our Charity of the Year air ambulance as our Charity of the Year.

BOB carries a full range of life-saving medical equipment and two fully qualified paramedics, supported on a regular basis by a small team of dedicated doctors.

But the only way TVACAA can offer this vital emergency service is with £2.75m-a-year funding

Which is why MK NEWS encourages you all to make a donation, however small, by visiting http://www.tvacaa.org/donations.php.

Craig, who is still battling to walk again, said: "I owe my leg, and my life to the air ambulance and staff. I've since met the crew that saved my life, and my parents have made a few donations to the group.

"I want to try and do something in the future, it's the least I could do."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Warnings issued over use of BBQs

BY CARL MUNGAZI
editor@mk-news.co.uk

FIREFIGHTERS have issued a new safety alert over the use of disposable barbecues after being called out to a bin fire near a children's play area.

The blaze, at the Milton Keynes Council-owned Emberton Country Park at around 5.30pm on Sunday afternoon, was sparked by two disposable barbecues which had not been fully put out.

Fortunately the bin was only about a quarter full, and firefighters were able to extinguish it quickly before it spread.

Now Buckinghamshire Fire & Rescue Service (BFRS) has renewed its calls for public vigilance when using disposable barbecues.

Two years ago, the BFRS teamed up with community rangers from The Parks Trust and Mark Lancaster, MP for Milton Keynes North, to launch a safety campaign following a spate of fires in parks and open spaces in Milton Keynes.

The campaign wanted to highlight the potentially serious consequences of disposable barbecues, as many small fires are caused by careless use and result in considerable damage to the countryside and park property.

People have been urged to make sure they put out disposable barbecues before they throw them away after a fire at the weekend

Greg Smith, BFRS' delivery manager for Milton Keynes, said: "These fires are often in remote locations, making access for firefighters difficult.

"They also put a strain on the resources of the organisations who have to deal with them.

"We don't want to stop people enjoying the beautiful parks and open spaces in Milton Keynes, but we do want them to take care when they are using barbecues."

Mr Smith also advised those having barbecues to:

• Always follow the manufacturer's instructions. Disposable barbecues are designed to be used on the ground, but don't place them on grass – put them on bricks or a stone slab.

• Have some water handy, and make sure the barbecue is completely out and safe to handle when you have finished with it.

• Please dispose of them carefully, and don't leave any litter.

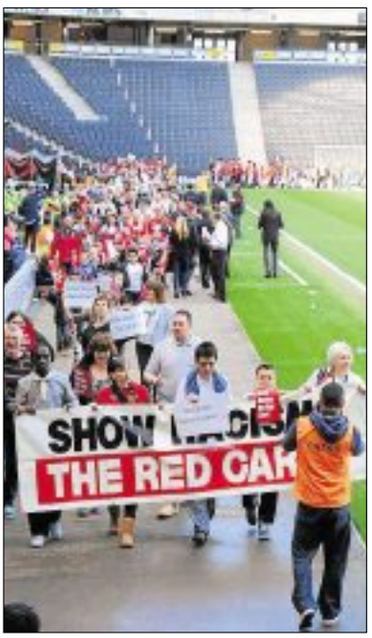
Racism gets the red card at Dons



Red Card: School pupils, community groups and sports teams take part in the procession

BY CARL MUNGAZI
editor@mk-news.co.uk

FANS at MK Dons stadium were treated to an anti-racism procession over the weekend as schools, community groups and local sports teams joined together to show their support for the 'Show Racism The Red Card' campaign.

The march was held at half-time during the Dons' final nPower League One home game of the season against Scunthorpe.

And although the Dons lost 1-0, there was cause for celebration following the success of five pupils in the national SRTRC competition.

Every year pupils are invited to send pieces of work detailing their understanding of racism and how they would eliminate it.

For the 2012/13 season four Year 6 pupils from St Monica's Primary School and a Year 10 pupil from Shenley Brook End School both won national category awards.

The group composed a rap whilst the older girl created a custom-made book discussing racism.

Dennis Woolford, the inclusion manager at MK Dons, said: "Since 2004 we have been running our Show Racism the Red Card programme through our MK Dons Sports & Education Trust charity.

"In the competition young people have to produce a piece of work of whatever they want to show their understanding of racism and how they would eliminate it from all walks of life.

"You get some wonderful entries. And since 2004 we have had 39 national category awards.

"It's unprecedented and I think we get recognised on the national stage because we promote the campaign in a uniform fashion every year with organisations getting involved.

"The campaign is launched at the stadium at start of the season and then we do a parade once the season is over."

Group launch first aid course for our pets

John Wakely looks on as Julia Ive bandages up her dog Merlin

First aid company Wallace Cameron has launched its first course for pets, writes James Averill

MOST pet owners will consider their pet dogs or cats furry but fully-fledged members of the family.

And Wallace Cameron, who have a headquarters in Sherington, believe that they can help educate owners on how best to treat their pet should it suffer an injury.

It's the reason why they have launched their pet first aid course, an idea which they say at first seemed 'off-the-wall', but began to snowball as more and more positive feedback was received about the idea.

The scheme was originally thought up by Pam Parker, the director of Wallace Cameron.

Her daughter Katie, who is a sales supervisor, said the course would help owners look after their pets.

"We initially came up with the idea a few years ago. We wanted something that could protect the pet, but also protect the owner, because injured animals can often be quite shaky.

"At first it was kind of a ridiculous idea, but its completely taken off.

"We were are Crufts a year ago and presented the idea to owners, and the feedback was brilliant. We went back there this year to launch it.

"The course offers loads of little things that can make a difference. You get sayings such as 'a dog is healthy if he has a wet nose', but we'll explain that not all dogs have wet noses!"

The three-hour course was designed and written by veterinarian John Wakely, who has worked with animals for more than 30 years.

It will offer information on how to deal with things such as shock, choking, stomach conditions and wounds.

"The course offers practical tips on things that owners are likely to see. If, for example, a dog is bleeding, how do you treat it so that it doesn't bleed all over the car on the way to the vets?" says John.

"For me the whole point is to educate owners. A lot of people don't even understand their own body, so how can they expect to know a pet's."

John operates his practice in Bedfordshire, but has dedicated a lot of time to the courses over in Sherington.

The three-hour course costs £49 and includes a first aid kit to be taken on walks.

Currently the course only centres on dogs, but there are plans to move the concept to other animals.

"It will take a bit of time to adapt the course to cats and other animals, but it is definitely on the cards," said John.

Wallace Cameron have pledged that for every person who turns up to the course, they will donate 50p to the Dogs Trust.

For more information on how to book, visit www.wallacecameron.com.

50 years up for loyal 'Mr Frost' Maurice

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A GARDENER who has worked at Frosts Garden Centre for 50 years, and is known to locals as 'Mr Frost', has been recognised for his loyalty and long service.

Maurice Rust, aged 66, gave his employers the rare opportunity to award a staff member with a Royal Horticultural Society Certificate and badge for 50 years service, for his time at the centre.

Maurice, who has become a well known face within the local community, joined Frosts, in Woburn Sands, on April 8 1963 at the age of 16.

Since then, Maurice has helped thousands to make the most out of their gardens.

In recent years he pioneered an initiative to encourage young people to take an active interest in growing plants and vegetables through Growing Gardeners, which has over 1,000 members.

Although now retired, he still does some work for the centre on a part-time basis.

Maurice told MK NEWS: "I wanted to work with plants growing up, so that is why I joined.

"The centre had just opened when I arrived. The garden centre industry was in the very early stages of development, and really I've seen the place develop from nothing. Frosts was only the fifth garden centre to open in the country, and it has changed so much.

"The till then was a metal chocolate box, but now of course they are all computerised, the whole thing is totally different to how it used to be.

"The company has always been really good to me, and it's quite difficult to say how I feel without getting emotional."

Maurice was presented with the award by members of the Frost family, James Frost, Jeremy Frost and Adrian Frost.

James, who is the managing director, said: "Maurice has undoubtedly made a huge contribution to the company over the years, and we owe him a great debt of gratitude for his loyal service and friendship. I would like to thank him wholeheartedly."

Loyal: Maurice Rust, 66, has been working at Frosts for 50 years. His knowledge of plants has since helped thousands with their gardens

Runners urged to help charity

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

TV PRESENTER Anna Williamson is urging people to run in the NSPCC Milton Keynes Half Marathon.

Anna, who starred as Cinderella in the last Milton Keynes pantomime, wants people of all abilities to sign up for July's run, which is being supported by MK NEWS.

All funds from this year's run will go to the charity's ChildLine Schools Service, which has just recently launched.

"Whether you're a budding athlete or this is your first half marathon, we really need people to get involved and help raise vital funds," said Anna.

Sally Phipps, community fundraising manager for the NSPCC, said: "We are getting ready for what we hope will be another record-breaking year."

This is the 15th year people will take on the 13.1 mile run and in that time £448,000 has been raised.

To book your place you can apply online or download an entry form by visiting www.nspcc.org.uk/miltonkeyneshalfmarathon. For further information email mkhalfmara@nspcc.org.uk or call 01908 328060. Entries received before Friday will receive a free event t-shirt.

SureSlim®
LIFESTYLE & WELLNESS CLINIC

It's not you. It's your metabolism!

WOW!
Look at me now!

Wow, I am so impressed at how easy it really was to lose my weight with SureSlim.

I'd always been fairly slim as a teenager, but at 18 I had a riding accident, and hurt my back. I used it as an excuse to stop the exercise! I didn't notice the weight going on but I slowly got bigger.

I tried so many diets to shift the pounds – even hypnosis! My doctor prescribed slimming tablets, but they just sent my blood pressure sky-high.

I hadn't seen my cousin for a few months. We'd always been the heaviest ones in the family. When I saw her she'd lost 3 stone! I couldn't bring myself to say to her, "Well done, you look fantastic" because I was so jealous. She'd followed SureSlim plan, so the next day I signed up myself. I lost 11lbs in my first week!

I was a size 22 when I started the plan – if I could get to a size 14 I would be very happy. I'm a size 12 and I've totally exceeded my expectations. My life has completely changed and I couldn't be happier!

GUARANTEED WEIGHT LOSS : GUARANTEED INCH LOSS

Personal trainer Andrew Whyte is holding the 'Greatest Loser' at the beginning of May. He wants as many people to lose weight as possible. Here, he puts Susan Mears through her paces during an exercise routine

Time to shed pounds

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A PERSONAL trainer from Milton Keynes is urging people to lose weight – by holding a city version of television programme 'The Biggest Loser'.

Andrew Whyte is holding 'The Greatest Loser' in a bid to cut down on what he feels is a growing obesity problem in the city.

And while there won't be any television cameras there to catch the progress, he is hoping there will be a number of before and after pictures highlighting the benefit of regular exercise.

"Obesity in Milton Keynes is growing, it's just easier for families to go out and buy fast food. But there are a lot of people out there who will want to get fit and healthier, and this could be just the thing for them.

"I want to see before and after pictures showing how much weight they have lost."

The 38-year-old, who works at MK Trainer, is aiming to start the courses within the next few weeks. So far 10 people have signed up, and he wants even more to join.

"People want quick fixes, but to properly lose weight they need to exercise and eat healthily.

"Milton Keynes has lots of parks and I want to utilise them, get people outside and make them active."

The cost of entering the competition is £350, but comes with £540 worth of personal training, a hoodie and t-shirt, a water bottle and food diary.

And to spur them, winners will also get the full cost reimbursed.

Sessions will include boot-camps, boxercise, spinning, aerobics, outdoor pursuits, yoga, pilates and aqua classes.

There will also be workshops on healthier eating.

For more information on how to enter, visit www.mktrainer.co.uk/greatestloser.

Discover museum with its own app

App-ealing: David Walton shows off the mobile phone app he has designed for the museum

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

VISITORS to the National Museum of Computing in Bletchley Park will now get a more interactive service - after its own mobile phone app was launched.

The app, which can be downloaded via Apple, is designed to give information about the museum both before and during a visit.

The app will give up-to-the-minute information about the museum, including opening times, how to get there, pictures and text about what is on display and a plan showing where everything is.

David Walton, the app designer, said: "The learning curve in building the app was interesting for me in applying my skills to mobile technologies and to the Apple delivery process.

"I'm pleased with the result, especially the social media elements that allow users to easily share. I look forward to the user response and I've made sure that it's very easy for them to give feedback!"

Andy Clark, chairman of The National Museum of Computing (TNMOC), said: "This app is expertly designed and will be of great value to visitors to TNMOC both before and during their visit.

"TNMOC benefits from a fantastic team of volunteers and David's app is a first class example of the dedication and skill which has enabled the museum to progress so far, so quickly with such a limited budget."

You can download the app by searching for TNMOC in your mobile app store.

■ In other news, Bletchley Station will feature on a new stamp issued from Bletchley Park Post Office.

The stamp is only available direct from Bletchley Park Post Office as a numbered limited sheet of 20 first class Royal Mail stamps.

Previous issues have fetched four times the original price.

City MPs bid farewell to Baroness Thatcher

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

THE city's two Conservative MPs said a final farewell to Baroness Thatcher by attending her funeral last Wednesday.

Mrs Thatcher was Britain's first female Prime Minister, leading the country from 1979 to 1990.

Both local MPs had previously expressed their sadness at her passing, and were at St Paul's Cathedral for the funeral.

"It was a great privilege to have been able to attend Lady Thatcher's funeral," said Iain Stewart, who represents Milton Keynes South.

"I thought it was a very moving and dignified service, and it was very fitting that so many of her political friends and foes from her years in office were able to join the family in paying their last respects."

Stewart admitted that it was a very emotional service, and like chancellor George Osborne, he was left in tears at one point.

"I'm not ashamed to admit that I shed a tear at times; it was an incredibly poignant occasion.

"For me, one of the most memorable moments was right at the end, when her coffin was leaving St Paul's, and we could hear from within the cathedral the respectful applause and cheers by the crowds outside. Rest in peace Lady Thatcher."

MK MPs were 'honoured' to attend Baroness Thatcher's funeral

Stewart's fellow Milton Keynes MP Mark Lancaster, who represents the city's North constituency, also added how 'honoured' he was to attend the funeral.

"Margaret Thatcher was and continues to be a defining figure in British politics," he said.

"The positive impacts of her defending the cause of freedom and the best interests of Britain are things which will live long after her. She really was one of the greatest leaders our country has seen in a generation. It was an honour to attend her funeral and to pay my last respects."

STUDENTS from five schools across Milton Keynes will spend the day visiting Auschwitz.

Pupils from Shenley Brook End School, Lord Grey School, Sir Herbert Leon Academy, St Paul's Catholic School and Walton High will head to the WWII concentration camp today, as part of a scheme by the Holocaust Educational Trust.

'The Lessons from Auschwitz Project' aims to increase knowledge and understanding of the Holocaust based on the premise that 'hearing is not like seeing', and to show what can happen if prejudice and racism become acceptable.

Students aged between 16-18 will fly to Poland for the day from Luton Airport.

Those attending from Walton High are Megan Watson, Simon Healey, Gemma White and Alex Sidwell.

Two students from Shenley Brook End, Anais Beriman and Jumana Awad will also be heading over, alongside selected pupils from the other city schools.

Rob Leay, a teacher at Walton High, says visiting the site will be a valuable lesson to the students.

"I've visited Auschwitz before, and the students won't realise how vast the site is until they actually get there.

"It's incredibly important we educate young people about the atrocities there, because it could prevent it from happening again."

The students will also then head to a debriefing seminar at Canary Wharf on Sunday May 5, to talk about their experiences and how they can educate their peers.

It is estimated that more than three million people died at the concentration camp at Auschwitz before it was liberated in January 1945. It is also estimated that 1.3million people a year visit the site.

I-r Megan Watson, Simon Healey, Gemma White and Alex Sidwell of Walton High will visit Auschwitz, organised by teacher Rob Leay

Giffard Park head teacher Glenn Booth shows off his medal after completing the London Marathon, a challenge set to him by pupils

Head runs London Marathon after challenge by pupils

TO RAISE money for charity, Giffard Park Primary School students took '26 Challenge'.

Children completed obstacle courses 26 times, running backwards around the playground 26 times, and even untied a human knot 26 times.

But keen to join in the fundraising efforts, head teacher Glenn Booth got more than he bargained for when his pupils challenged him to run a mile 26 times, and take on the London Marathon.

Glenn returned to the school with his race medal, finishing in three hours 28 minutes.

"I thought the kids were joking when they first suggested it," Mr Booth told MK NEWS.

"But they had put so much effort into raising money that I couldn't really say no."

Mr Booth raised £1,500 from the marathon, bringing the school's total funds raised for the Motor Neurone Disease Association (MNDA) to £3,200. It is a cause particularly close to the head as he lost his father-in-law to the disease.

And he says it has taught the kids the valuable lesson that 'they can take on any challenge and succeed'.

MKEDUCATIONBRIEFS

School is 'outstanding'

WALTER High School, based in Bletchley, has been rated as 'outstanding' in the latest Ofsted inspections. The school was inspected on March 13 and 14 2013. It is the first school in Buckinghamshire to have achieved an 'outstanding' following the introduction of the new Ofsted framework. Dave Winfield, the school's business manager, said: "We believe that good education is the right of all pupils, and we have worked tirelessly to champion this."

World map for Shenley

PUPILS from Shenley Brook End will help create a giant Climate Splatter map of the world to be unveiled today. The project has been organised by the students themselves, and will see pupils creating a giant mural with nerf guns and paint projectiles to show the relative impact that countries around the world have on the environment. The activity is part of a nationwide project run by the Science Museum. Jason West, a teacher from Shenley Brook End, said: "The students have been working really hard to make sure the paintball panels are ready."

Stoke sows the seeds

SCIENCE work at Stoke Goldington CE First School was hands-on when pupils planted a variety of seeds to learn about growth. The Learning Ladybirds in years one and two got their hands mucky and had great fun planting mustard, cress and bean seeds, which they will watch excitedly to see which ones will grow the fastest.

Helen wins trip to help mums-to-be

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A MIDWIFERY student will experience working in a hospital in Tanzania after winning a competition.

Helen Braid won a 'what midwifery means to me' essay competition.

She will now head out to Africa to work with the Women and Children Tanzania Ltd (WACT) in a hospital in Arusha.

The 34-year-old from Sherington will also see the 1,000 word essay published in The Practicing Midwife magazine.

"I've always wanted to do a student placement abroad, but could never finance it," said the third year University of Bedfordshire student.

"It should be amazing. I'm really excited to go and learn just how difficult it is to be a midwife out there and to see how they go back to basics with the equipment and deal with the awful conditions they have to work in.

"Here we moan about certain things like the long hours, but I think when I come back from Tanzania it will make me realise just how good we have it in this country."

Tanzania trip: Midwifery student Helen Braid

Tanzania has one of the fastest growing populations in the world, yet only 43 per cent of pregnant women see a midwife,

More disturbing is that one in 23 women die through pregnancy or childbirth in the East Africa country.

There is also a chronic shortage of equipment, which can see two or three women sharing one bed.

Helen was inspired to become a midwife by the birth of her three sons, but also the sad loss of one her children at just 18 months old.

"In 1999 I gave birth to my first child, Alexandra, who had spina bifida and sadly passed away at 18 months due to complications.

"I think after that experience, and then having more children, it makes you re-evaluate your life and what you actually want to do and want to achieve.

"It's a bit cliché, but I felt like I wanted to give something back and now I can use my own experiences to help others."

A purposely designed barn conversion, Home Farm Day Nursery provides light and spacious play areas with high quality play equipment to support children in their development.

There are four separate rooms that are bright and spacious, with areas for eating, sleeping, active, messy and quiet play. All equipment, furniture and facilities are specifically designed for children, helping them to play, learn and eat together.
When they start at Home Farm every child is appointed a Key Person who works closely with you and your child to get to know them as an individual and understand their likes and dislikes, abilities, interests and personality. The Key Person will promote your child's progression in all areas of their development and be your first point of contact.
"Home Farm Nursery is very supportive towards the development of both our children, we love the size of the Nursery, all the staff know each child by name. They made my return to work after maternity leave a lot easier."

Tickle your funny bone with comedians

BETWEEN them, this comedy trio have appeared on some of television's biggest programmes.

The Lumberjacks are made up of Canadian comics Stewart Francis, Craig Campbell and Glenn Wool.

Each one is a success in their own right, individually they have toured the UK, USA, Scandinavia and Australia as solo stand-ups.

And you can get three for the price of one, as their side-by-side format gives each individual the chance to shine, but also complements their compatriot friends.

Francis has taken the mantle as the king of one-liners, following successful stints on Mock the Week and Live At The Apollo.

Craig Campbell has been labelled as a 'young Billy Connolly', while Glen Wool can vary his material from political to the wonderfully silly.

They will each be performing new material, but will also dedicate some time to the classic routines that have brought them their success.

The Lumberjacks play at The Stables on Monday. Doors open at 8pm and tickets cost £16 from the box office on 01908 280800.

Rock'n'roller

CATS, it isn't. Evita, it most definitely is not.

But Starlight Express was the seventh longest running musical in the West End when it finally hit the buffers in 2002.

Mind you, things are a little different in the updated production that steams into MK Theatre tonight. Instead of hurtling round the auditorium on roller blades, the amazing skate skills of the performers and the rolling stock races are recreated virtually in 3D. So prepare to put on the 'safety goggles' provided to really enjoy the spectacle. Despite the fact that Andrew Lloyd Webber has been the mastermind behind better shows, when Rusty, the underdog - or in this case, underengine - triumphs over the odds, it's hard not to be won over.

IT HAD the hype, but this reinvention of Lara Croft has definitely been worth the wait.

With sensational gameplay, set-pieces and gorgeous graphics, you'll revel in evolving a frightened shipwrecked young woman into an action-heroine for the next generation.

Bar a couple of minor quirks and an only passable multiplayer mode – the game is nearly faultless. Even previous Tomb Raider-haters have expressed their surprise at the ingenuity oozing throughout this masterpiece.

latestfilms

OUR resident film expert Gavin Miller previews the latest movie releases.

OLYMPUS HAS FALLEN (15): There's been some decent reviews for this action thriller which sees Gerard Butler star as a disgraced former Presidential guard. He finds himself trapped inside the White House in the wake of a terrorist attack – then attempts to rescue the President (Aaron Eckhart) from his captors, in this movie from the director of Training Day. Co-stars Morgan Freeman.

EVIL DEAD (18): The team behind the original Evil Dead – including Sam Raimi and Bruce Campbell – are back with this highly-anticipated remake of the 1981 cult horror. When five friends discover a book of the dead in a remote cabin, they unwittingly summon soul-possessing demons from the nearby woods in this scary and gore-filled reimagining.

THIS child-friendly puppet performance will warm your hearts.

Since building a wall to keep the children out of his garden, the only visitors The Selfish Giant gets are Lady Snow and her friends.

But one morning he hears the most beautiful music coming through his bedroom window and things begin to change.

Set in a magnificent steel sculpted garden, this production of the Oscar Wilde classic uses superb storytelling and a brilliant musical soundtrack.

The 45-minute production at Stantonbury Theatre also gives kids the opportunity to meet the puppets.

Tickets cost £8, or £5.50 for children, for the performance on Sunday, which starts at 2.30pm. They are available from 01908 324422.

metalmeltdown

FEATURING some of Milton Keynes' most exciting new metal bands, the Craufurd Arms is aiming to show that the kids still love to headbang.

The evening features four metal bands, varying from the established to the entirely new.

Headlining the show are Twisted Arcana, pictured, who, in their words, 'take British metalcore and apply it to the more melodic roots of our sound.'

The energetic five-piece released their debut EP in December 2012 and will no doubt be loving the chance to play their tracks to a home crowd.

Supporting Arcana will be fellow Milton Keynes band Leagues, who have chosen the evening to be their very first live performance as a band.

Further acts include Korrozion, who will appeal to those fans of metal in its rawest form, and Elements, whose sound is a melting pot of time signatures, chord progressions, catchy riffs, intense drums, technical solos and powerful vocals.

The evening starts at 7.30pm on Friday and tickets cost £5 on the door.

To read Jamie's blog log onto mkweb.co.uk

MILTON Keynes recording artists Jamie Stimpson and Mister Vee will be releasing their debut album, Judgement Day, in August. Jamie writes exclusively for MK NEWS about the production and behind-the-scenes action of writing, recording and working on the album

WE ARE moving forwards nicely in the production of our debut album, Judgement Day.

We did hit a brick wall at one stage, but we overcame it and have since been pro-active in the studio. Some of the sounds we are creating make us want to release the music early, but we can't do that!

As well as the music, there is a lot behind the scenes to think about.

Last week TimeCodePro, who filmed our last video Alive, agreed to shoot the video for our first single off the album.

We're also in talks with a company in London about marketing and gigs. As we are independent our budget is non-existent and we use whatever money we can earn in day-to-day jobs and find down the back of the sofa to help make everything become reality.

Finding the right people who can help us is crucial because every penny counts.

We have nearly finished the single that we believe will be the title track of the album and hopefully we will have a feature artist on it too.

JUST HOW GREEN ARE YOU?

How green is your garden?

With the summer we're having? Probably very. But if all the climate change predictions are correct then there are longer, hotter times ahead and our little garden oases could really struggle to survive. But you don't have to pour money down the drain in an attempt to keep it green.

The price of water is going up all the time but, in case you hadn't noticed, nature provides it for free every time it rains. Install a water butt on every downpipe and give those thirsty plants a chlorine-free treat. When a drought is looming waste not, want not. Pump out your bath water with a cheap 'Water Garden siphon. The same goes for used water from the kitchen much, of which is perfectly ok for pouring onto your plants In an average summer gardeners could harvest nearly 640 litres of rainwater from a 7ft by 5ft shed – which, depending on the weather, could keep up to 50 tomato plants happy for three months. The sooner you get a water butt installed, the more you can save and the nicer your salads will taste!

Get composting

What's easy, green and great value? Home composting.

With wet and warm weather continuing throughout summer and plants growing quickly, now is the perfect time to start home composting. Garden prunings, spent plants and grass cuttings can all be recycled into a natural nutrient-rich garden food which can be used to help you to produce fantastic flowers, fruit and veg.

Home composting has many benefits:

- It's easy to make and easy to use.
- Produces a free continual source of the very best compost.
- Improves soil structure.
- Maintains moisture.
- Helps the soil PH balance.
- Suppresses plant disease.
- Reduces the need for polluting bonfires.
- Reduces carbon emissions.
- Helps to divert organic waste from landfill.
- Reduces refuse collection costs.

A compost bin can also take some kitchen waste, such as vegetable peelings, egg shells, tea bags and coffee grounds. To encourage residents to get composting, Northamptonshire Waste Partnership has teamed up with Getcomposting.com to offer Home Compost Bins at heavily discounted prices.

Councillor Chris Millar, Chair of the Northamptonshire Waste Partnership said,

> "Typically, one third of all household rubbish is organic matter which can be recycled at home in a compost bin. Home composting not only helps to significantly reduce carbon emissions, it can also be used as an effective and sustainable waste management method to reduce the amount of waste sent to landfill.

For general information on recycling and waste in Northamptonshire, including tips on how to reduce the amount of waste you produce, please visit www.recyclefornorthamptonshire.co.uk/

THINK GREEN

Grow Your Own...

By growing even some of your own fruit, vegetables and herbs your food will be cheaper, fresher and reward you with much more fun than you'd get slogging round a crowded supermarket.

You don't even need an acre of land on which to do it. To get started, all you need is a couple of pots, a patch of soil or even a well-watered window box and you can make a contribution to your family's five-a-day.

How much energy do you use?

To give you an idea of how much energy you use at home, this is how long typical household appliances can run on just one kilowatt (or one unit) of energy:

Kettle	20 mins
Hair straighteners	50 mins
Electric Oven	1 hour
Plasma TV	2 hours 52 mins
Desktop PC	12 hours 40 mins
Light bulb	16 hours 40 mins
Laptop	40 hours

DVD Player	111 hours 6 mins
Smartphone charger	1000 hours

Lamb, Apricot & Coriander Burgers

SERVES 4

Preparation time: 15 minutes + chilling time
Cooking time: Under 20 minutes

INGREDIENTS

450g/1lb lamb mince

25g/1oz dried apricots, finely chopped

25g/1oz shelled pistachio nuts or almonds, finely chopped (optional)

15ml/1tbsp freshly chopped coriander or mint

Grated zest and juice of ½ lemon

From the Store Cupboard:

Salt and freshly milled black pepper

METHOD

1. In a large bowl, mix all the ingredients together.

2. Using slightly damp hands shape the mixture into 4 x 9cm/3½inch burgers. Cover and chill in the fridge for 20 minutes.

3. Cook the burgers on a prepared barbecue or preheated moderate grill for 6-8 minutes on each side until cooked and any meat juices run clear.

4. Serve the burgers in a burger bun with a salad garnish and a selection of relishes.

Tip:
As an alternative, shape with mince mixture into mini meatballs or koftas, mould onto small metal skewers then cook as required and serve as mini kebabs.

THE DEFINITIVE GUIDE TO YOUR NEXT HOME IN AND AROUND MILTON KEYNES

MKNEWS Homesnow©

Shenley Road, Bletchley

MELVILLE Farm, off Shenley Road in Far Bletchley – formerly known as Fir Tree Farm – is a 17th century timber-framed building, and was once owned by an old established Bletchley family, the Cooks. It is now on the market for £325,000.

At one time it had a baker's oven and bread was made there. Sunday joints were also brought to be roasted. The barn and orchard used to be at the far end where houses now stand.

If you are looking for a home with charm and character, then look no further.

Melville Farm is a thatched, four bedroom cottage situated on a corner plot on the Shenley Road, south of Milton Keynes and comes with some great features that include an open fireplace, exposed beams and flagstone flooring – but still giving you that modern living.

The well appointed accommodation is set over two floors and comprises a sitting room, lounge, large kitchen/diner, utility room, downstairs cloakroom, rear porch, four double bedrooms, refitted bathroom, further cloakroom, mature gardens, parking and a garage behind gates.

This property has recently had a new thatch roof, which has a long guarantee. Offered for sale with no above chain.

Request a 12-page brochure for full details. Viewings strictly by appointment. Call Inspired Sales & Lettings on 01908 690700.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES
(REDWAY (PART) KINGSTON) (TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2013

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes intends, in not less than seven days from the date of this notice, to make an Order under Section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984. Its effect will be to temporarily prohibit all access along a part of the redway that links Winchester Circle, Kingston with Brinklow Roundabout. The length of redway to be closed will be from a point where it links with Winchester Circle, Kingston for a distance of 40 metres in a south-westerly direction.

The Council is satisfied that the temporary closure is necessary because of works being carried out, namely redevelopment works to the site where the Kingston Tavern Public House stood, adjacent to this redway. It is anticipated that the temporary closure will take place from Monday 6th May 2013 until Tuesday 5th November 2013, inclusive. The redway may open sooner if the works are completed ahead of schedule.

The alternative route for access will be via a temporary footway which will be constructed on private land adjacent to the redway closure and signed accordingly.

The restrictions will be in force between the dates shown and when indicated by the appropriate traffic signs.

There will be no exemptions from the provisions of this Order.

The proposed Order will come into operation on Monday 6th May 2013 and will continue in force for a maximum period of 6 months or until the works are completed, which ever is the sooner. If the works are not completed within the maximum period stated, a further Order may be made with the consent of the Secretary of State.

Any person committing a breach of the Order will be liable upon prosecution to such fine as is prescribed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES
(DRAYTON ROAD (PART), BLETCHLEY)
(TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2013

FURTHER NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that there has been a delay in the timescales originally envisaged and previously notified on the 27th March 2013 for the temporary road closure taking place at Drayton Road, Bletchley detailed below. Therefore, the restrictions brought into effect under the provisions of the above Order made by the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes on the 3rd April 2013, under Section 14 (1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 will now take place during the dates and times stated below. Its effect will be to temporarily prohibit all vehicles from entering, waiting or proceeding along the following length of road :-

Drayton Road, Bletchley, Milton Keynes from the northern junction with Fern Grove to the access road which leads to the Blue Lagoon, whilst a crane is positioned across the road in order to lift signaling structures off of the nearby railway infrastructure. It is anticipated that the temporary closure will now be in effect from 9.30pm on Saturday 27th April 2013 until 8.00am on Sunday 28th April 2013, inclusive. Should works relating to a current temporary closure in this area over-run the anticipated completion date, the above dates may be subject to change, and further notification stating amended dates will be given in due course.

There are no exemptions from the provisions of the Order, as the crane will extend across the whole carriageway.

Whilst the temporary restrictions are in effect the alternative route will be via Drayton Road, the A4146, Stoke Road and then Drayton Road, and vice versa.

The temporary road closure and its alternative route will be clearly signed in accordance with Chapter 8 of the Traffic Signs Manual.

The temporary restrictions will be in force on the dates shown when indicated by the appropriate traffic signs, and these will be displayed in the affected parts of roads.

This Order came into operation on 6 April 2013 and will continue in force for a maximum period of 18 months or until the said works have been completed, which ever is the sooner. If the works are not completed within the maximum period stated, a further Order may be made.

BOBSLEIGH

AN RAF airman from Milton Keynes has tasted victory in the Inter-Services two man bobsleigh competition.

Corporal Keith McLaughlin, who is based at RAF Boulmer in Northumberland, was successful in Igls, Austria, with partner Dan Taylor.

He is the brakeman for the duo and now has his sights set on the Winter Olympics in Sochi in 2014.

The RAF competed against teams from the Royal Navy, Army and Marines and hadn't won the title since 2000.

"This is a fantastic result for the RAF Bobsleigh Team and it should not be underestimated just how big a feat it is with the GB mens' one and two drivers forming parts of other teams," McLaughlin, who went to Radcliffe School in Wolverton, said.

"Everyone has worked extremely hard to get this result and we will now need to build on this performance to retain the title of the Inter-Service Champions in 2014."

McLaughlin has also been taking part in the four man event at World Cup and European Cup races this season as one of the Great Britain team. His team's best performance was a fifth place in a European Cup race at La Plagne in France.

If he makes Sochi he could be joined by another city representative in sprinter Craig Pickering, who is also eyeing a spot at the Games after taking up the sport.

HOCKEY

THE season has now concluded for the mens' teams at Milton Keynes Hockey Club - with teams left celebrating for different reasons.

After a tense battle, the Mens' 1sts managed to hold off relegation by one place in the South League Premier Division. Skipper Brett Holland was named as player of the season and the club can now look forward to the next campaign.

The 2nds secured second spot in Middlesex, Berks, Bucks & Oxon Division One which was enough for promotion.

After two years narrowly missing promotion by finishing in third, this year's result was a welcome and much celebrated outcome.

A great team performance over the season and some solid coaching from Doug Spencer meant the side did what needed to be done, as they were just pipped to the title by a good Marlow outfit. Player of the season for a second year running was Jo Vernon.

The 3rds, similar to the first team, just managed to survive relegation, with the team struggling to keep a consistent squad in a tough league.

There was a respectable fifth placed finish for the 4ths who, after a bright start, were forced into a captain change mid season. Despite this they battled on with a mixed set of results but easily held their own in the league.

Another promotion was achieved for the club thanks to MK Samurai, who played extremely well and proved to be a dominant force in the Division 10 East.

Mark Ling, the club's top goal scorer, was key in their success. The 5ths struggled to find their feet in the league after only their second season, but the team has started to take shape and they are hoping for better things in the future.

BADMINTON

TWO schools from Milton Keynes claimed gold and silver this weekend at the Center Parcs National Schools Badminton Championships.

Stantonbury Campus captured the years 10/11 boys age category, beating The Elizabethan High School from Retford, and Denbigh School were runners up in the years 7/8/9/ boys category.

Chicksen yet to sign new Dons contract

ADAM Chicksen still hasn't signed a new contract offered to him by MK Dons – a month after it was revealed that he had been presented with a fresh deal.

Dons boss Karl Robinson said at the end of last month that the defender had been given the chance to sign improved terms but fans are still waiting for the Academy product to confirm his future.

"He's still not signed it," Robinson said. "I've had five or six meetings with his agent now.

"We'll have to wait and see what he wants to do. He's got a future at this football club, but I can't twist his arm to sign."

Chicksen, pictured, enjoyed a fine end to the season and has played for Dons on both flanks.

He has become a cult hero at stadiummk and supporters will be keen for him to remain in Milton Keynes amid fears of an exodus now that the club has failed to achieve promotion to the Championship.

Meanwhile, Robinson has pledged changes to his backroom staff as he looks to bring about a continental feel at stadiummk.

"I'm changing an awful lot at the football club," he said.

"There will be changes to the backroom staff.

"We've had meetings but it's not right to talk about it just yet.

"It'll be based on a continental system.

"There will be similar faces, maybe some different roles, and maybe some fresh faces."

The manager added that his ideas were not commonly practiced in this country and said Champions League semi-finalists Borussia Dortmund and Barcelona were sides he wished to emulate.

"A lot of heads of departments will take care of core groups of the football club," he said.

"Barcelona have heads of sports science, heads of recruitment, heads of medicine, heads of coaching and then the manager oversees that.

"Dortmund are a shining light when it comes to youth development.

"To put this in place at this level is a remarkable achievement by the chairman, Andy Cullen and the backroom staff."

Part-time coach Ian Wright looks set to have some role in the new set-up.

"Wrighty will have a special place in our hearts and be a part of what we do," said Robinson.

Robbo: I will look for AFC result

KARL Robinson admits that the first thing he will do after Saturday's final game with Stevenage is check whether AFC Wimbledon have been relegated from the Football League.

The MK Dons boss steered his side to a 2-1 FA Cup victory in the much anticipated first meeting between the two clubs in December, but chances of a re-match will be dramatically reduced if Neal Ardley's men plummet out of League Two.

A home victory against Fleetwood will be enough for AFC but failure to win will see a return to non-league football.

When asked if he wanted them to be relegated, Robinson said that he 'wasn't bothered' but he added: "I will be honest, I will be looking at the AFC score. It will be the first score I look for."

The history of the two clubs has created inevitable tension and the cup victory, sealed by a late winner from the heel of Jon Otsemobor, provides a happy memory of a season where Dons have disappointed too often in the league.

Robinson, too, can take comfort from being at the helm for the historic success.

"I'll never forget that game," he said. "I'll never forget looking up at the top tier and nearly seeing that far roof come off. The noise it created was deafening.

"Even now you sometimes get goose pimples.

"I remember the TV clip going to two AFC Wimbledon fans, one in a yellow shirt, one in a blue shirt, and then there was a certain curse word.

"We'd been knocked for so many years.

"I've got a picture of it I want to put it in my house.

"I see Jon and seven of the players in pure ecstasy and thousands behind them with faces of pure joy. It was an amazing moment."

Dons will likely make changes for the trip to Stevenage on the last day of the season on Saturday. With nothing to play for, youngsters could get a chance at the Lamex Stadium.

MK Dons assistant boss MICK HARFORD writes exclusively for MK News every week

THERE is obviously a huge amount of disappointment about the place at the moment.

Going into the last two games, starting with Saturday's home match with Scunthorpe, I always believed that reaching the play-offs was a long shot.

We were rank outsiders and after 45 games we have come up short.

At the moment we feel like we have let a good opportunity slip away.

Some of the reasons for it have been spoken about and are well documented, but I don't like making excuses.

At any club there will be a detrimental impact if you lose major players to injury, but at the end of the day we just didn't do enough.

During the game we were kept up to date of how Swindon were getting on against Stevenage, and to be honest I always thought they would beat them.

We have spoken about why we seem to slip up against sides nearer the bottom of the table, like Scunthorpe and Shrewsbury, while beating the likes of Brentford and Doncaster.

Maybe a little bit of complacency has set in which is something that needs to change.

We have one game left, against Stevenage on Saturday, and it's now important to try and end the season in a positive fashion.

The preparations for the game will be exactly the same, and all we can do then is stick our chests out and try and prepare for next season.

In fact the work has already started as we have been speaking to agents, chairmen and directors of football about bringing players to the football club for next year.

We are still out and about watching games – this week myself and Karl went to watch Tottenham v Arsenal Reserves and on Tuesday night we both went to League One fixtures.

ICE HOCKEY

Mettam is on his way

DEPARTING MK Lightning netminder Alex Mettam has spoken of 'four great years' at the club after he made the decision to leave for pastures new.

The stopper has become a favourite at MKL for his efforts as the last line of defence but he has been tempted away by what Lightning head coach Nick Poole described as a 'new challenge and great package.

Mettam's destination has yet to be revealed by his new club but he was full of praise for Lightning.

"It's a great club to play at," he told MK SPORT.

"I've played with some great netminders like Barry Hollyhead and Stephen Wall, who have been there and done it in pressure games against the top teams.

"I'm leaving as a much better goalie and then there are the fans who are the loudest and craziest."

Twenty-five-year-old Mettam, pictured, was spoken to by Poole 'many times' as the coach tried to keep him at the club.

In the end though, the Sheffield native thought it was the correct decision to go, saying he hopes for more time on the ice.

"There were a couple of things [at Lightning] we couldn't get sorted," he said.

"It's the right time to move on. "I've been part of some great netminder combinations but everyone wants to play every night."

For Mettam, winning the English Premier League title in 2009/10 ranks as a highlight.

"Manchester and Basingstoke had just dropped down from the Elite League and nobody gave us a chance," he said. "But we won a lot of games."

While Mettam is leaving, Lightning have tied up Wall for another season.

"I'm really glad to be coming back," said Wall.

"It's a brilliant team to play for and the fans are just superb. I'm really looking forward to getting started again. Hopefully we can get rid of inconsistent form."

Bahrain victory 'faultless'

BAHRAIN WINNER: Sebastian Vettel put in a superb performance

SEBASTIAN Vettel said he drove a 'faultless' race after he stormed to victory at the Bahrain Grand Prix.

The Red Bull Racing man started second on the grid and recovered from being overtaken by Fernando Alonso at the start to re-pass the Spaniard's Ferrari on turn five.

He then cruised past pole winner Nico Rosberg and from there on was largely untroubled, coming home ahead of Lotus pair Kimi Raikkonen and Romain Grosjean.

Treble world champion Vettel now leads Raikkonen by ten points in the drivers' standings and Tilbrook's Red Bull Racing are 16 ahead of Lotus in the Constructors' rankings.

"It was a faultless and seamless race and the pace we had was incredible," said Vettel.

"It was good fun at the beginning with some very tight wheel to wheel racing.

"At the start you don't know if you will be quick or not, as everyone is a bit all over the place, including yourself.

"It's important to get to the front; we saw at the last race that if you get stuck behind someone then it does have an impact on tyre wear and it was important to make use of the tyres we had saved from qualifying.

"I love to be in clean air, so I was pushing hard to get into the lead and, with the speed we had mid-race, it was quite comfortable today. Well done to the whole team, to everyone here, to the factory in the background and especially to those who were working on the strategy, it worked just as we expected, so we obviously got the numbers right."

Team Principal Christian Horner was quick to pay tribute to Vettel, who has now won two of the opening four races of the season.

"It was an absolutely impeccable drive from Sebastian," he said.

"He executed two brilliant overtakes, one on Fernando and the other on Nico Rosberg.

"After that he dominated the race until the finish and managed his tyres brilliantly.

"The strategy worked perfectly with the tyres that we conserved in qualifying, which ended with a dominant win on a three-stop strategy." Meanwhile, Red Bull's Mark Webber started and finished seventh.

Bletchley relegated as City miss play-off spot

BLETCHLEY were relegated and Milton Keynes missed out on a play-off spot on a bad final day of the season for the city's teams.

Remarkably, Bletchley's demotion from the South West 1 East came after an unfortunate turn of events saw the results of four games go against them.

The Manor Fields outfit were eighth before kick-off and were on the receiving end of a 66-5 hiding at South West 1 East champions Bracknell.

It was still expected that they would be safe but three teams below them, Cheltenham, Marlow and Newbury Blues, all picked up victories to climb above them and away from danger.

Witney, another side below Bletchley, were Cheltenham's victims but they picked up a losing bonus point in their defeat which was also enough to take them above the city outfit, who tumbled four places and into the bottom three.

They join Swanage & Wareham and High Wycombe in relegation and now face matches with local rivals Milton Keynes and Olney in the Southern Counties North.

That was a league MK were hoping to get out of, but their hopes were ended after they were well beaten 50-24 by Grove.

Third place City went into the game with their second placed opponents needing a four try bonus point win to overhaul them in the table, which would have been enough for a promotion play-off.

It was a tough ask for Milton Keynes, who also needed to prevent Grove from gaining any bonus points of their own, and in the end the hosts showed no mercy as they claimed the runners up berth, and the play-off spot, for themselves.

Ray Bray's side, who were top just a fortnight ago, also lost to Olney last week. Buckingham captured the league title.

SWIMMING

A LARGE group of young swimmers from City of Milton Keynes Swim Club (CMK) attended the final round of the COPS mini meet Grand Prix in Peterborough.

The meet consists of four consecutive rounds where the swimmers gain points per event. The points are then all calculated and final results are given at the last round.

Helen Odams managed a first place swim in the 200m free and there were second places for Matthew Sturgess (100m individual medley, 50m freestyle, 50m freestyle), Christian Bywater (50m freestyle, 50m breaststroke, 200m individual medley), Brayden Ditchfield-Watkins (50m breaststroke) and Sydney Wood (200m freestyle). Third placed finishes went to Brayden Ditchfield-Watkins (100 IM, 50 Free) Marcus McAuliffe (50 Free, 200 IM) and Sydney Wood (50 Fly, 50 Back).

CMK were also named as the top supportive club for the third year running.

BASEBALL

BASEBALL has returned to Milton Keynes and for the first time the city's club has two teams competing.

The MK Bucks, last year's runners-up in the National AA Championships, now ply their trade in the AAA Midlands Division and were big 18-3 winners at Stourbridge Titans.

After seven of the nine scheduled innings the game was stopped under a 'mercy rule' and Bucks can now look forward to a trip to Birmingham Maple Leafs on Sunday.

In Milton Keynes the newly formed MK Coyotes, playing in the Single A South Division, hosted the Herts Eagles from Hemel Hempstead in their debut game at Woughton on the Green.

The Coyotes, set up for newcomers to the game, showed they are not here just to make up the numbers and claimed a convincing 34-16 victory.

This game was also stopped by the mercy rule after seven innings, with Guildford Mavericks visiting the city next up.

AMERICAN FOOTBALL

MK Pathfinders began their season with a 26-22 defeat to Watford Cheetahs in the National South Central division.

The city side battled back from being 26-9 down at one stage but they were just pipped by their rivals.

FOOTBALL

MILTON Keynes College are preparing for the British Colleges Final on May 1.

The side representing the city will take on either Hartpury College or Lancaster & Morecambe College in the showpiece game, at St George's Park, the FA's new national football centre near Burton upon Trent.

Failure is 'sickening'

•Buck stops with me says Robbo •Boss 'excited' for next season

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

A DOWNCAST Karl Robinson has admitted that Dons' failure to achieve promotion to the Championship this season was 'sickening' but insisted that the buck stops with him.

The boss saw any hopes of gaining a League One play-off spot extinguished by Saturday's dismal 1-0 home defeat to relegation threatened Scunthorpe United and a summer of uncertainty now looms at stadiummk, with star players like Stephen Gleeson and Shaun Williams potentially heading for the exits.

Speculation about Robinson's own future is also guaranteed to be rife but with the inquest into a season which had promised so much already under way, the manager has expressed excitement about yet another crack at getting out of the third tier next year.

"It's sickening really," he said. "I feel like I've let the fans down, I feel like I've let down my family and the chairman. There's a sour taste in my mouth.

"There are things internally that haven't been right. There are things that I need to do better.

"Ultimately, over the course of the season I've not been good enough and I've got to take responsibility for that."

Robinson has often spoken about injuries, suspensions and decisions wrongly going against his team as being major contributing factors to the disappointing season.

Losing key men Gleeson and Luke Chadwick to major injuries on the same day in December is seen by many as being a turning point, but others will feel that this is simply an excuse after one too many slip ups.

After two consecutive exits in the play-offs, 2012/13 kicked-off with much optimism and the pledge of an increased budget from chairman Pete Winkelman, which may now be reduced again.

Robinson, though, seems keen to take on the challenge once again, although he has previously conceded that big names will now leave.

"It's a summer that will be difficult, but I'm already excited about what happens next year," he said.

"I've got four solid weeks of reassessing.

"There's a tremendous sense of disappointment but also a tremendous sense of grit your teeth and get back on the horse.

"I'm already rebuilding now. I've met four or five agents over the past two days about signing players for this football club next year.

"We're planning for pastures new. "It's a lesser budget so it could be cheaper than ever, but maybe better than ever.

"There will be a lot of youth, desire, energy and hunger. There's an air of excitement already cupped in with the disappointment."

Robinson compared his relationship to the club and city to a marriage when asked about his future at stadiummk.

"You go through good and bad times together but the loyalty will remain," he said.

"The affection will stay the same regardless of how many arguments you have. It takes an awful lot for that to be split up.

"The chairman knows where my loyalty lies.

"People say I'm a Liverpool fan but I want to manage this club in the Premier League before I manage Liverpool.

"This is the club that gave me a chance and made me what I am today.

"Myself and the chairman are not in a good place right now, but we know why. It's a reality check for all of us.

"Because we care it hurts us that little bit more."

PAIN: Karl Robinson can't hide his disappointment as Dons' promotion dream died for another year against Scunthorpe
